This page is always under construction

This page contains information about local attractions that might be of interest to Residents and visitors to Willow Valley. It was compiled from information provided by the Lancaster Convention and Visitors Bureau and by Willow Valley Residents who have had first-hand experience and have recommended the attraction. In most cases, telephone numbers are provided so you can check on hours and tour availability, which change during the year. If you have comments or suggestions about this listing, favorable or unfavorable, please send an email to wvcomputerclub@gmail.com. Information you provide will be used to update the listing.

You can electronically search the listing below by pressing the CONTROL key and the "F" key at the same time, and then entering the word or words that apply to your search when a pop-up search screen is displayed. (For Macintosh: press the Command (APPLE) key and the "F" key at the same time and then enter the desired search information. Then continue with the Command (APPLE) key and the "G" key to see the next listing of the same searched item.)

If you don't find what you are looking for, use Google or another search engine. If that produces the desired result and you think it should be added to this listing, please send an email with that information to wvcomputerclub@gmail.com.

Aero-Tech Ventures (800-852-8693) www.aerotechservices.com or email info@aerotechservices.com
Interested in seeing this part of Pennsylvania from the air, Lancaster Airport is just a few miles away. The best Flight Service Operator at Lancaster County Airport, in one Resident's opinion, is Aero-Tech Ventures located in their own buildings near the main terminal on the airport grounds. Within their overall fleet of aircraft used for charter ops, they also have 4-seater (i.e. up to 3 passengers) sightseeing aircraft (single engine Cessna 172's) that are high wing aircraft and therefore particularly well-suited to sightseeing and photographing from the air. In Feb 2017, these cost $200/hour of flight time, including pilot costs. For those interested in seeing what it's like to fly but never want to leave terra firma, they also have a very realistic (read 'full motion') flight simulator on site. My trip last week took 1.2 hours and we flew over WVC (to take pix), then over to the Susquehanna River, followed the river down to the Chesapeake Bay near Harve-de Grace and then across to the C & D Canal; (places I had boated on many occasions but wanted to see from the air) then returned back up the river to Lancaster. Typically their schedule is pretty full and a couple of days' notice may be needed to get a suitable plane, pilot, and time slot. If bumpy rides are not your thing, don't ask to go flying in the middle of the day, mid summer!

- Mack Truck Assembly Plant and Museum Tours - The following was provided by Spring Run Resident Bob Kahler: Five WV residents recently toured the Mack Truck Macgungie, PA assembly plant, the Mack Truck Museum at Allentown, PA. Both the factory and the museum tours were superbly executed and most enjoyable. The tours would probably interest men particularly anyone interested in manufacturing and industrial engineering methods. The url below provides information regarding both tour and museum visit. Factory tours are by prior arrangement only; no prior arrangements are required for the museum visit. A minimum of 5 persons is preferred since the company calls in and pays a retired employee as an escort for the factory tour; a maximum of 10 persons per tour is desirable for this 1.5 to 2 hour walking tour. While the pace is not fast, persons making the tour must be able to walk unaided for about 1.5

miles on level hard surface. The factory tour would not be appropriate for a handicapped individual; however the museum tour would. The distance from the Macgungie facility to the museum in Allentown is about 15 miles. Both facilities are relatively easy to find. Point of contact for arranging the factory tour is Pat at (610-709-3566).

There is the usual assortment of fast food and pizza restaurants in Macgunie. We had an inexpensive lunch at the Bear Swamp Diner about 1 mile south of the plant on Main Street [Rt 100].

Longwood Gardens, Kennett Square - (610-388-1000) www.longwoodgardens.org

From Spring Run's Bob Kahler: Visited Longwood Gardens this week. They have a very nice and quite useful website at www.longwoodgardens.org. The website has a section on Accessibility. Buried within that section is information on wheelchairs and electric scooters. Electric Scooters are available to mobility-challenged persons on first come/first serve basis at NO COST. Check-out desk is down the wide hall to the right of the ticket counters.

We had dinner on Brandywine Creek @ Simon Pearce [website]. Good place to dine if visiting Longwood, or other duPont attractions. I have recommended it to numerous people and have always gotten glowing reports from them. Prices: Starters $9 to $12; Salads $6 to $9, Entree $20 to $ 40 with most in the higher $20s. Location is 1333 Lenape Rd, West Chester, PA
